We are excited to announce our Judging Team for the 2021 World Clydesdale Show...

The 2021 World Clydesdale Show Committee is continuing our planning for the show this upcoming July and has finalized the judging team for the event.

We have judges from around the world committed to be a part of our show. Our judging team will be divided up to judge the halter, hitch, youth, riding, and chore team classes.

A fourth generation Clydesdale Breeder, coming from Cannington, Ontario, Stephen Lewis, will be judging the Stallion Halter Classes.

Started showing in his short trouser in the late forties, making his second trip across the pond to judge, Clydesdale and Shire breeder, from Derbyshire, England, Tom Fountain, will be judging the Mare and Group Halter Classes.

New father to twins from Schomberg, Ontario, Calvin Lipsett Jr. will be judging the Gelding Halter Classes. To keep this Percheron breeder busy, he will be judging all of the Hitch Classes.

We are going small town Alberta to a woman who is well known in the draft horse industry for showing and fitting all breeds, Colleen Coleman of Didsbury, will be judging the youth decorating, judging, showmanship and hitch classes.

Long time Quarter Horse judge and exhibitor, Larry Clifford, is bringing his cowboy hat down the road from Shilo, Manitoba to judge all of the Western Riding and Trail classes.

No stranger to the Keystone Centre, Royal Manitoba Winter Fair Hunter Jumper Division Chair, Shirley Neudorf of Brandon, Manitoba, will be judging all of the English Riding, Jumping and Dressage Classes.

Taking time from preparing for the competitions at The Manitoba Thresherman's Reunion, Bruce Gilmore of Kelwood, Manitoba, will be judging the Chore Team Classes.
